Friday 19th January

A Quick Reminder!!

Please make sure you let us know in writing, email or by phone when you change your normal arrangements for picking your child up at the end of the school day, even if your child is being collected by another parent. We will not let your child go with anyone we are not expecting and it is not sufficient to simply send your child in with a message. All changes should be confirmed by a parent or guardian.

Wildlife School for Class 2- Wednesday afternoon

Class 2- Please ensure that you send your child in with their outdoor clothing and wellies on Wednesday afternoon.

Forest School for Class 1- Thursday afternoon

Class 1- Please ensure that you send your child in with their outdoor clothing and wellies on Thursday afternoon.

Stars of the Week

Leighton Swannick for being chivalrous and offering to carry a friend's bag to the bus when he could see they were struggling.

Calisee Lyon for beautiful handwriting during a phonics lesson.

Hector Owen, Rhy Derwas, Ollie Taaffe and Stanley Waters for working really hard during morning Maths.

Perrie Evans for fantastic effort and perseverance with her phonics.

Emily Borthwick for fantastic effort with her writing.

Jack Law for excellent writing about Hansel and Gretel. Jack did a fantastic forest description!

Sophie Roberts for always trying her best and producing work to be proud of. Sophie listens carefully in every lesson and takes on board advice when improving her work. Sophie has an excellent attitude to school life!

Edward Huninik for trying really hard with his handwriting this week. Edward has written a fantastic myth using a wide range of vocabulary and accurate punctuation. Well done, Edward!

Toby Williams for helping out the athletics team at the very last minute. Toby joined in with the year 5 boys' team last night and produced a super run in the relay to ensure they won their heat. Thank you Toby!

Keiran Swannick for fantastic progress in his reading and Maths. It has been lovely to see Keiran grow in confidence. Miss Hyde and Miss Hughes are very proud!

Harry Heard for some fantastic points made during the Class 5 debate this week. Harry used the success criteria brilliantly to create a super speech!

Ben Cottrell for concentrating incredibly hard on his Maths. Ben listens well and is always eager to find out where he has made mistakes. This attitude has resulted in Ben achieving full marks in this week's arithmetic test.
