Friday 23rd November

Cold weather

As the weather is getting colder now, can I ask that all parents make sure their children bring a warm coat with them every day please. As long as it is not raining heavily, the children will be outside for break and lunchtime, which is a long time to be outside without a coat.

Stars of the Week

Declan Jamison for finishing his own work quickly and then mentoring his friends.

Georgie Evans for being very helpful and caring at Forest School this week.

Zachary Morgan for being very confident using a number wheel when practising number bonds.

Oliver Smith and Jenson Gibbs for working very hard on their comprehension skills this week. They have both been including far more detail in all their answers. Well done boys!

Cadel Kennedy for being really sensible during the Year 3's Stepping Out Training this week. Cadel demonstrated that he has excellent road safety awareness and was also able to share his knowledge and experience with his peers! Cadel has also made great progress with his handwriting this week.

Braiden Keechen for making Miss Harvey really proud. Braiden has learnt the importance of really knuckling down and will now persevere until the job is done. He has been adding really tricky numbers with re-grouping this week and has done brilliantly. Keep up the excellent work Braiden!

Edward Huninik for being an absolute pleasure to teach. Edward is always ready to contribute to class discussions and to try his best. He also meets every challenge with a smile on his face. Well done Edward!

Will Ashton for always being ready to help Miss Hyde and other children. This week, Will has worked extremely hard in Maths and has made excellent progress. He has also consistently tried his best in English. Well done Will!

Jack Humphreys for always trying his best and being ready to help others. Jack has an excellent attitude to learning and loves to challenge himself. He is an excellent role model in Class 4. Well done Jack!

Dalton Monroe, Violet Berry and James Park for being superb 'gurus' in Class 5 this week. They have all finished their work quickly and have then helped their classmates with their learning. This is a huge help to Mr Jones. Thank you!
