Stars of the Week

Jasmin Lees for always working very hard, never giving up and for being kind and polite. Mrs Prior says that that Jasmine is practically perfect in every way and could be awarded Star of the Week every week!

Taylor Grove for settling into Class 1 brilliantly! Taylor always tries his best, asks for help if he needs it and really perseveres. He is a really polite and well behaved pupil!

Beau McArdle for continually working hard this half term. He has shown brilliant progress, particularly in writing as he strives to make his work the best it can be! Well done Beau!

Joe Ungur for always trying his best, regardless of which lesson it is. His writing over the past few weeks has blown Miss Jones away as he continues to make adventurous choices! Well done Joe!

Stanley Waters for working consistently hard in Class 2. He gives 100% in every lesson. Stanley's writing has really impressed Miss Jones over the past couple of weeks, as he has included adventurous vocabulary and used a range of punctuation. Well done Stanley!

Elise Swannick for being a superstar! Elise is working really hard in lessons, especially in Maths. She is making fantastic progress with her times tables and put lots of effort into learning them. Elise is also a very kind and caring member of the class, always wanting to help others. Well done Elise!

Molly Berry for making Miss Harvey very proud! Molly is working really hard at the moment and showing great perseverance in everything she does, especially her instructions writing. She has made fantastic progress with her handwriting and is also doing brilliantly with her times tables. Well done Molly!

Ted Lewis for making lots of progress over the last two weeks, particularly in Maths. Ted has really challenged himself to reach his targets. Keep up the hard work Ted!

Lottie Lee for always challenging herself and for trying her best in every lesson. Lottie is also always ready to help others. Miss Hyde thinks that Lottie is a pleasure to teach!

Violet Berry for the amazing effort that she has put during Class 5's assessment week. Violet completed three Maths papers and got every single question correct! She has shown amazing focus. What a super effort Violet!

Olivia Wilcox for working incredibly hard this week. During a literacy lesson, Olivia typed up one of her paragraphs before helping her friend to complete her work after she had hurt her hand. Fantastic team work. Well done Olivia!

Ruby Richardson for being a superstar! Ruby gives 100% in everything that she does and is a very enthusiastic learner! Keep up the amazing effort Ruby. Well done!
