PE Kit

Over the last few weeks, a few teachers have mentioned to me that some of the children are either not bringing their PE kits in for PE lessons, or they are not bringing in the correct kit. As PE is a national curriculum subject, it is compulsory for children to participate in the PE lessons unless they are too unwell to or they have an injury which prevents them for taking part. We do have some spare kit in school, but it is much better for the children to have their own.

A reminder of the PE kit is shown below. Please ensure that your child has their PE kit in school with them every week.

- White or navy plain shorts
- White or navy plain t-shirt
- Tracksuit bottoms/leggings and top for outdoor PE (these items are not needed in the Summer)
- Plimsolls or trainers

Clubs

Please note that all clubs have now finished. Please look out for the new Clubs Matrix towards the end of May.

Zachary Morgan for being resilient at Chester Zoo. Even though Zachary got a bit cold during the trip, he didn't moan and was very stoic!

Cameron Parry for showing incredible perseverance and brilliant behaviour throughout the Class 2 Visit to the Heritage Area this week. Cameron tried everything and had a smile on his face all day! Well done Cameron!

The members of Creation Club for their wonderful performance at the Mothering Sunday Service at Trefonen Church. They performed the poems and song beautifully and their lovely display was commented on by many, including the Bishop!

Melody Ellis for having a fantastic week! Melody has been supportive and respectful to her friends and is learning to talk through any problems she has. She is a lovely girl who always tries her best with her work and she is making great progress. Well done Melody!

Elsie Harper for being an absolute superstar! Elsie is kind, helpful and very hardworking. Nothing is ever too much trouble for her and she just wants to help everybody. Elsie is also making amazing progress in her subjects. She listens carefully and always wants to do her best. She did some great work in Science this week on pollination. Well done Elsie!

Danny Price for always being respectful of the other children in Class 4. He tries his best in every lesson, every day. The progress Danny has been making this year is outstanding. Well done Danny!

Lily Mae Owen for always trying her best and for challenging herself to be the best she can be. Her attitude to learning is outstanding and she is a pleasure to teach! Well done Lily Mae!

Amelia Edwards for being such a fantastic person to have in Class 5! Many times this week Mr Jones has noticed just how much effort she puts into her work. The focus that Amelia has is fantastic. Keep the amazing effort Amelia!

Emily Ellis for being a huge help at Cricket Club over the past two weeks. Even though Emily has hurt her finger, she has still turned up to Cricket Club and kept the score which is a really kind thing to do. Well done Emily!

Billy Owen, Vincent Owen, Izzy Hawkes, William Roberts and Ronnie Lee for their impressive cricket catches during Wednesday's PE lesson. They all concentrated when they were fielding and demonstrated impressive reaction skills.
