Friday 12th April

Road Closure

Along with this Newsletter today, you will also be receiving a letter regarding the road closures around the school area over the Easter holidays. This letter can also be found on the school website.

Clubs

Please note that all clubs have now finished. Please look out for the new Clubs Matrix towards the end of May.

School Dinner Menu

The menu for school dinners will remain the same now up until we finish for the summer holidays. A menu with updated dates for the Summer Term will be coming home for parents today. It can also be found on the school website. Please ensure you look check the dates on the top of the menu carefully as we will be returning to school on 'Week 2' as per the dates on the menu.

Week commencing Monday 29th April

Tuesday during school – Guitar lessons and Year 5 John Muir Session

Stars of the Week

Temperance Waddington-Gries for being a model pupil! She is brilliant at painting, drawing and writing and her behaviour is perfect!

Declan Jamison for writing an excellent recount of Class 1's visit to Chester Zoo with no help!

Jenson Gibbs, Hector Owen and Stanley Waters for writing some incredible descriptions in their Spring time poems this week (please see below).

Liam Evans for becoming a Free Reader! He has been busy reading every night to try and reach his target. Well done Liam! You have shown brilliant perseverance!

Max Burgess for being such a wonderful character to have in Class 3! He is bright, bubbly and always has a smile on his face. Max also shows great kindness to his friends and makes sure everyone is happy. Well done Max!

Megan Ford for giving up some of her free time to do some litter picking locally. Miss Hughes and Miss Hyde are really proud that Megan showed such wonderful respect for the environment. Well done Megan!

Dylan Keighley for making outstanding progress this year in Maths and English. He has a great attitude to learning and is a wonderful role model in Class 4. Well done Dylan!

Dalton Monroe for returning to school after having a couple of weeks off with a broken arm fully focused and concentrating to a high level. Mr Jones is glad to have him back!

Rachel Llewellyn for her fantastic contribution to class discussions. Her hand is always up and this shows what a detailed understanding she has. A great effort Rachel, well done!

Miss Jones' class have been writing Spring poems this week and some of the descriptions were so amazing that she wanted to share them with parents!

"I can taste scrumptious welsh cakes crumbling slowly in my wide mouth" (Stanley Waters)

"I can see delicious Easter eggs hiding quietly in the spikey bushes" (Hector Owen)

"I can smell beautiful fresh, long grass waving in the meadow" (Jenson Gibbs)
