Friday 10th May

Outdoor clothing

There are lots of children coming to school at the moment without a coat. Could you please ensure that your child has a weather appropriate coat with them in school every day. The weather is very changeable at the moment and we do not have spare coats in school to give to children if they do not have one.

Charity Fun Day at North Shropshire College

North Shropshire College will be holding a Fun Day on Tuesday 14th May, from 3.00pm to 7:30pm.

There will be lots of events and activities to take part in, including a dog show at 6:00pm which is free to enter, as well as other activities including tombola, hook a duck, arts and crafts, penalty shoot-out and face painting.

Food and drink will be available and the event is taking place to support Hope House and Alzheimer's Society.

Week commencing Monday 13th May

Key Stage 2 SATs Monday to Thursday

Tuesday during school – Guitar lessons

Wednesday during school – Yr 4 Maths Challenge at Wrekin College

Thursday after school – Cross Country at The Marches

Stars of the Week

Mollie Harvey for setting such a good example for others to follow and for always trying her best!

Archie Prescott and Charlie Evans for both working really hard this week when writing their story of Jack and the Beanstalk. Charlie worked the hardest he has ever worked and Archie demonstrated massive perseverance! They both also took pride in their work which Mrs Prior said was a pleasure to witness. Well done boys!

Oliver Smith for working so hard since coming back after Half Term and for always having a smile on his face! He also has a great attitude and lovely manners. Well done Oliver, keep it up!

Elliot Owen for having an amazing week! Elliot has tried his best and shown enthusiasm in every lesson. He has worked so hard and has a fantastic attitude! Well done Elliot!

Bonnie Creaser for having a fantastic week and for writing a brilliant story! She always listens carefully and is willing to share her ideas with the class. Miss Harvey would also like to congratulate Bonnie on getting her pen license this week. She thoroughly deserves it!

Alice Morris for being such a kind and positive young lady who cares a great deal for everyone. Miss Harvey thinks that Alice could have Star of the Week every week and is very proud of Alice's hard work! Alice always tries her best and makes amazing progress. Keep up the hard work Alice!

Izzy Howard-Elliott for producing an excellent poem in English this week. Izzy has made superb progress in English this year. Keep up the hard work Izzy! Well done!

Louis Heard for also producing an excellent poem in English this week. Louis also performed his poem extremely well to the other Year 4 children. He paused for emphasis and even included actions! Louis has also been working hard this week to put his and up when he would like to share his ideas. Well done Louis!

Edward Huninik for using Class 4's treasures and idea board to include some wonderful and wild imagery in his poem this week. He also always challenges himself and is eager to contribute in lessons. Well done Edward!

George Owen for producing an excellent graph of his results in Science this week. George is always eager to contribute and challenge himself, whilst also taking the time to help others. Well done George!

Michaela Roberts and Oliver Borthwick for both working incredibly hard over the last couple of weeks. Their focus and attitude to learning have been first class! Keep up the amazing effort both of you!

Alfie Meakin for settling into Bryn Offa superbly. Alfie has already developed a close knit circle of friends and has been a fantastic addition to the class. Well done Alfie!
