Dear Parent/Guardian,

World Book Day- Thursday 4th March

It is World Book Day next Thursday and Bryn Offa will be celebrating along with millions of children in over 100 countries around the globe. Obviously, with the majority of children still not being back in school, things will be a little different this year with many virtual activities taking place over the week. We have lots of activities planned for the children to take part in at school and at home with links to live events being posted throughout the week on the class homepages.

On Thursday there will be a competition where the children can have a go at guessing the Bryn Offa Masked Reader! The video for this and a list of the staff members taking part will be posted on the class homepages on Thursday. The answer sheet will be posted some time afterwards. See if you can guess who is who!

We would also like the children to take part in the 'Bryn Offa Potato Challenge' where they can get creative and make a potato into a character from a book (further information attached). Please send a photo of your child's entry to their class teacher by Friday 5th March. Entries will be judged on that Friday with a winner being picked from each class. Prizes will be awarded when all the children return to school the following week.

Below are some links to get you started but more will be posted on the class homepages next week including 'Share a Story Corner,' 'Book Club,' Author and Illustrator Academy' and 'Share a Story Live Events'. Some famous voices will also be sharing some fantastic stories over the week.

Please also don't forget to use your World Book Day token that can be swapped for a FREE World Book Day book at your local bookseller. The book token is valid from Thursday 18th February to Sunday 28th March. You should have received your token with our email of 11th February, but if you need another one please let us know.

Yours sincerely,
Miss Harvey
Literacy Coordinator
