Dear Parent/Guardian,

Bag2School

We are pleased to advise that Bryn Offa is going to be taking part in the Bag2School second hand clothing scheme!

Bag2School are a fundraising company who give money to schools across the UK for unwanted second hand clothing and other items. The items are then recycled and shipped across the world to people who need it. Further information can be found on their website <https://bag2school.com/>

Today each child will be bringing home a Bag2School plastic bag. Bags can be dropped off at school from Friday 17th March. A collection has been arranged from school on the morning of Monday 20th March so all bags need to be with us by 9.00am on Monday please.

Details of what the company do and do not accept can be found over the page. Please read this carefully before sending your donations.

If you would like more bags, please let Miss Morris know.

Best wishes,
