Dear Parent/Guardian,

Bag2School

We are pleased to advise that Bryn Offa is going to be taking part in the Bag2School second hand clothing scheme!

Bag2School are a fundraising company who give money to schools across the UK for unwanted second hand clothing and other items. The items are then recycled and shipped across the world to people and families who need them. Further information can be found on their website

<https://bag2school.com/>

Today each child will be bringing home a Bag2School plastic bag. Bags can be dropped off at school from Monday 6th November. A collection has been arranged from school on the morning of Tuesday 7th November so all bags need to be with us by 9.00am on Tuesday please.

Bin bags can be used if you need more bags!

Details of what the company do and do not accept can be found over the page. Please read this carefully before sending your donations.

Best wishes,
BOPTA Committee
